NATIONAL THANKSGIVING.

By the President of the United States of America.

A PROCLAMATION.

The year that is drawing to a close has been filled with fruitful blessings of fields and healthful skies—To these bounties which are so constantly enjoyed that we are prone to forget the source from which they come, others have been added which are of so extraordinary a nature that they cannot fail to penetrate and soften even the heart which is habitually insensible to the ever watchful providence of Almighty God. In the midst of a civil war of unequalled magnitude and severity, which has sometimes seemed to invite and provoke the aggressions of foreign states, peace has been preserved with all nations, order has been maintained, the laws have been respected and obeyed, and harmony has prevailed everywhere, except in the theatre of military conflict, while that theatre has been greatly contracted by the advancing armies and navies of the Union. The needful diversion of the wealth and strength from the fields of peaceful industry to the national defense, has not arrested the plow, the shuttle, or the ship. The axe has enlarged the borders of our settlements, and the mines—as well of iron and coal as well as the precious metals—have yielded even more abundantly than heretofore. Population has steadily increased, notwithstanding the waste that has been made in the camp, the siege, and the battle field, and the country, rejoicing in the consciousness of augmented strength and vigor, is permitted to expect a continuance of years with large increase of freedom. No human cause hath devised, nor hath any mortal hand worked out these great things—they are the gracious gifts of that most high God, who, while dealing with us in anger for our sins, hath nevertheless remembered us in mercy. It has seemed fit and proper that they should be solemnly, reverently and gratefully acknowledged as with one heart and voice by the whole American people.

I do, therefore, invite my fellow citizens, in every part of the United States, and also those who are at sea, and those who are sojourning in foreign lands, to observe and set apart the LAST THURSDAY OF NOVEMBER NEXT, as a day of Thanksgiving and Prayer to our beneficent Father, who dwelleth in the Heavens; and recommend to them, that while offering up the aspiration justly due to Him for such singular deliverances and blessings, they do, also, with humble penitence for our national perverseness and disobedience, commend to his tender care all those who have become widows, orphans, or sufferers in the lamentable civil strife in which we are unavoidably engaged, and fervently implore the interposition of the Almighty Hand to heal the wounds of the nation and to restore it as soon as it may be consistent with the divine purposes, to the full enjoyment of peace, harmony, tranquility and union.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done at the city of Washington, this, the 3d day of October, in the year of our Lord 1863, and of the Independence of the United States the eighty-eighth.
(Signed) A. LINCOLN.
By the President:
WILLIAM H. SEWARD, Secretary of State.

Governor Salomon's Proclamation.

The people of Wisconsin have much reason to be thankful to God for the many favors and blessings they have enjoyed during the past year. While the calamities and dangers of war have visited so many of our sister states, we have been permitted to enjoy peace and prosperity within the borders of our state; the earth has been bountiful in its productions to us, and our harvest plentiful; commerce, manufactures, and all the arts and vocations of peace have flourished with unusual prosperity. And all of this has been vouchsafed to us while the nation has been, and is, in a fierce and bloody contest for its life and integrity—a contest in which the brave and noble sons of Wisconsin have shown unsurpassed endurance, heroism and devotion to our country's sacred cause upon so many battle fields; and, thus bravely acting their part in the suppression of the rebellion, and assisting in driving the enemy from his strongholds, have conferred honor and renown upon themselves and our beloved state.

Thanks to God who gave them such loyal and stout hearts and strong arms! Thanks to Him for the success that has accompanied our army within the past year, bringing nearer to us constantly a permanent national peace, unity and happiness.

Now, therefore, in compliance with a time-honored custom, and conforming to a recent proclamation of the President of the United States, appointing a day of National Thanksgiving, I, EDWARD SALOMON, Governor of the State of Wisconsin, do hereby appoint

Thursday, the 26th day of November,

1863, as a day of THANKSGIVING AND REST, and request the people of the State of Wisconsin that, laying aside all their secular pursuits, they repair on that day to their accustomed places of worship, there to offer their gratitude to God for the blessings and favors we have been permitted to enjoy during the past year. And in that gratitude let us not omit to remember the many noble and departed heroes who have laid their lives upon the altar of our common country, to save it from destruction and ruin; nor their weeping widows, orphans, relatives and friends; nor those who have sacrificed health and limbs in this great national struggle; nor those who yet so bravely stand around the flag of the Union.

Let us remember them and those that are dear to them. Let us comfort and assist them in their affliction and their struggles.

In offering our thanks, let them be mingled with prayers for a speedy and permanent restoration of peace, unity and happiness to our distracted country.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto subscribed my name and caused the great seal of the state [L.S.] of Wisconsin to be affixed. Done at Madison, the twelfth day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three.
By the Governor, EDWARD SALOMON.
EDWARD ILSLEY, Assistant Secretary of State.

NATIONAL THANKSGIVING.

By the President of the United States of America.

A PROCLAMATION.

The year that is drawing to a close has been filled with fruitful blessings of fields and healthful skies. To these bounties which are so constantly enjoyed that we are prone to forget the source from which they come, others have been added which are of so extraordinary a nature that they cannot fail to penetrate and soften even the heart which is habitually insensible to the ever watchful providence of Almighty God. In the midst of a civil war of unequalled magnitude and severity, which has sometimes seemed to invite and provoke the aggressions of foreign states, peace has been preserved with all nations, order has been maintained, the laws have been respected and obeyed, and harmony has prevailed everywhere, except in the theatre of military conflict, while that theatre has been greatly contracted by the advancing progress and navies of the Union. The needful diversion of the wealth and strength from the fields of peaceful industry to the national defense, has not arrested the plow, the shuttle, or the ship. The axe has enlarged the borders of our settlements, and the mines, as well of iron and coal as of the precious metals, have been yielded even more abundantly than heretofore. Population has steadily increased, notwithstanding the waste that has been made in the camp, the siege, and the battle-field, and the country, rejoicing in the consciousness of augmented strength and vigor, is permitted to expect a continuance of years with large increase of freedom. No human cause hath devised, nor hath any mortal hand worked out these great things. They are the gracious gifts of that most high God, who while dealing with us in anger for our sins, hath nevertheless remembered us in mercy. It has seemed to us fit and proper that they should be solemnly, reverently, and gratefully acknowledged as with one heart and voice by the whole American people.

I do, therefore, invite my fellow citizens in every part of the United States, and also those who are at sea, and those who are sojourning in foreign lands, to observe and set apart the LAST THURSDAY IN NOVEMBER NEXT, as a day of Thanksgiving and Prayer to our beneficent Father, who dwelleth in the Heavens; and recommend to them, that while offering up the supplication justly due to Him for such singular deliverances and blessings, they do also, with humble penitence for our national perverseness and disobedience, commend to his tender care all those who have become widows, orphans, or sufferers in the lamentable civil strife in which we are unavoidably engaged, and fervently implore the interposition of the Almighty Hand, to heal the wounds of the nation and to restore it as soon as it may be consistent with the divine purpose, to the full enjoyment of peace, harmony, tranquility and union.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done at the city of Washington, this 3d day of October, in the year of our Lord 1863, and of the Independence of the United States the eighty-eighth.

(Signed) A. LINCOLN.

By the President:

WILLIAM H. SEWARD, Secretary of State.

Governor Salomon's Proclamation.

The people of Wisconsin have much reason to be thankful to God for the many favors and blessings they have enjoyed during the past year. While the calamities and dangers of war have visited so many of our sister states, we have been permitted to enjoy peace and prosperity within the borders of our state; the earth has been bountiful in its productions to us, and our harvest plentiful; commerce, manufactures, and all the arts and vocations of peace have flourished with unusual prosperity. And all of this has been vouchsafed to us while the nation has been, and is, in a fierce and bloody contest for its life and integrity—a contest in which the brave and noble sons of Wisconsin have shown unsurpassed endurance, heroism and devotion to our country's sacred cause upon so many battle-fields; and, thus bravely acting their part in the suppression of the rebellion, and assisting in driving the enemy from his strongholds, have conferred honor and renown upon themselves and our beloved state.

Thanks to God who gave them such loyal and stout hearts and strong arms! Thanks to Him for the success that has accompanied our army within the past year, bringing nearer to us constantly a permanent national peace, unity and happiness.

Now, therefore, in compliance with a time-honored custom, and conforming to a recent proclamation of the President of the United States, appointing a day of National Thanksgiving, I, EDWARD SALOMON, Governor of the State of Wisconsin, do hereby appoint

Thursday, the 26th day of November,

1863, as a day of THANKSGIVING AND REST, and request the people of the state of Wisconsin that, laying aside all their secular pursuits, they repair on that day to their accustomed places of worship, there to offer their grateful to God for the blessings and favors we have been permitted to enjoy during the past year. And in that gratitude let us not omit to remember the many noble and departed heroes who have laid their lives upon the altar of our common country, to save it from destruction and ruin; nor their weeping widows, orphans, relatives and friends; nor those who have sacrificed health and limbs in this great national struggle; nor those who yet so bravely stand around the flag of the Union.

Let us remember the sick and those that are dear to them. Let us comfort and assist them in their affliction and their struggles.

In offering our thanks, let them be mingled with prayers for a speedy and permanent restoration of peace, unity and happiness to our distracted country.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto subscribed my name and caused the great seal of the state [L.S.] of Wisconsin to be affixed. Done at Madison, the twelfth day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three.

By the Governor, EDWARD SALOMON.

EDWARD ILSLEY, Assistant Secretary of State.

The State Finances.

The Secretary of State, and State Treasurer, have each made their reports for the fiscal year ending the 30th of September. The receipts into the general fund for the year, amount to $850,376,12, to which is added transfer from funds $2,503,09, and the balance of last year, amounting to $166,523,04, making a total for the year of $1,019,402,25.

The payments out of this general fund amount to $810,940,55, leaving a balance on hand, Sept. 30, 1863, of $205,968,61.

This is for the ordinary running expenses of the state government, its charitable institutions, and interest, and has nothing to do with the various other funds managed by the state officers, such as the school, swamp-land, drainage, allotment, war fund, &c., &c.

The receipts into the State treasury, for its general expenditures, which making up aggregate of $850,376,12, consists, principally, of taxes from counties, $607,590,22, railroads, $107,561,10, banks, $52,208,49, lisenses, $18,360,35, premium on gold in the state treasury $10,520,21, sale of state bonds $50,000, &c.

Our state prison and charitable institutions cost the state $97,502,25.

The interest on the state debt, last year, $104,612,97, and the debt is $1,720,000.

It is not our purpose to give a statement of the condition of each fund. It would occupy too much space, but their magnitude may be judged from the fact that the total amount of all the different funds, during the year, was $2,949,105,67.

The war fund itself, for 1862–63, amounted to $807,929,31, and since the war commenced, $2,248,304.

The allotment fund is also considerable, amounting during the last year, to $483,-933,62.

The finances of the state appear to have been well managed and it is fortunate that most of those having control of them are to be continued in their offices during the next two years.

THE VOTE OF NEW YORK—OFFICIAL.—The official returns of the New York election show a Union majority of 29,505, being a Union gain, as compared with Seymour's vote, of 40,257. The total vote compares as follows:

	1863.	1862.
Union	314,442	295,897
Copperhead	284,937	306,649
	599,379	602,546

CHICAGO DRY GOODS MARKET.—The Journal of the 23d says that "there was an active demand for all descriptions of staple dry goods last week, and the market was firm but not quotably higher. To-day there is a strong disposition to put up prices, but the report that General Banks has captured 250,000 bales of cotton in Texas will check any upward movement, if it does not cause a decline."

☞ The western newspaper publishers are to hold a convention at Chicago on the 17th of December to secure an improvement in telegraphic reports to western papers. It is a much needed reform.

THE RIOT RINGLEADER ANDREWS.—The notorious Andrews, of the leaders in the New York riots of July, who was taken charge of by the general government and assigned to Fort Lafayette, has now been handed over for trial to the state authorities. It is to be hoped that full justice will be meted out to the peace-disturbing Virginian.

COLORED CHAPLAINS.—The president has just made another innovation and the copperheads are requested to howl. He has appointed a colored chaplain for the benefit of the black troops in South Carolina, and other colored chaplains will be appointed as the negro army increases in size. Thus is radicalism running riot! Black troops and black chaplains to preach to and pray for them!

CHATTANOOGA AND CHICKAMAUGA.—A Choctaw scholar, writing to the New Orleans Era, gives the following meanings of the words Chickamauga and Chattanooga, which have now gone into history:

Chickamauga is from Chicka, little or small, and Oka, water, Little Water, the name of the small stream on which the late great battles were fought.

Chattanooga is Moccasin Track, and takes its name from the bends of the river, above which, or the bend above the toe of the moccasin, lies the town of Chattanooga. Moccasin Point, from which the federal batteries bombarded those of the confederates on Lookout Mountain, is at the toe of the moccasin. The mountain rises below this and along the sole of it. The "moccasin track" is at once suggested by all who view the landscape from Lookout

For the Janesville Daily Gazette.

That Basis.

Messrs. Editors:—As nothing is more clear in logic than that a conclusion from a hypothesis cannot be more certainly true than the hypothesis itself; and as it is equally clear that no case adjudicated upon an unjust predicate can be otherwise than unjust; you will, I trust, bear with me while I examine these propositions, laid down as a basis of settlement with the county by our common council, and see if they don't come under these rules.

Their first proposition reads thus: "The city to have credit for all the said taxes raised for city purposes." Now why the city should have credit for these taxes the council has not seen fit to tell us, and for the life of me I cannot see upon what grounds the claim is based; for, if you will refer to the returns in the county treasurer's office, and to his books, you will find that all the taxes raised for city purposes, and not collected by the city treasurer, for those years, were returned, with the uncollected state, county, school and street taxes, to the county, and by her received and paid for; by which act they became the sole property of the county, as much so as the safes in its offices, or the certificates and money in its safes; and for the city to set up a claim to any part of those taxes so returned evinces a recklessness that no language proper for me to use here can fitly characterise.

It is unnecessary for me to enquire wether the city was, or was not, legally bound to make good those taxes; they have been reassessed, and to a great extent paid; but somehow the money has got into the city treasury, instead of the county, where it belongs, and the question now is, how to get it out.

There can be no question of the right of the county to every dollar of this money, but as the council have demanded a part of it, let us see how much they propose to take. By referring to the assessment rolls of the city for those four years, it will be found that the aggregate assessment for city purposes, exclusive of the street taxes, amount to $130,134.09, and the amount for state and county purposes to only $34,-338.19, being nearly four times the amount of the latter. Now the whole amount claimed by the county of the city is $31,-549.82, which, excluding the street taxes of $8,884.61, leaves $22,665.21, of which $17,945.37 is made up of returned city taxes, and $4,719,84 of state and county taxes; and this latter sum is all the council is willing to give the county credit for, while it claims the larger sum for the city. Of course these figures are based on the assumption that the relative proportions in the returned taxes are equal with the assessments, which is not the case exactly. For many persons, particularly in 1856 and '57, paid their state and county tax and left the city tax unpaid. This of course would lessen the amount given to the county still further, and swell the amount claimed for the city.

Now, an unsophisticated individual might think at a first glance, that the council meant to hand this amount over to the county; but look again and behold the whale that is prepared in the 3d and 4th propositions to swallow up a part, if not the whole of even this small sum.

The cost of getting through, and litigating the reassessment law is not stated, nor the amount of property "not liable to assessment," they are unknown sums, and would undoubtedly, if the "basis" was accepted, swallow all that was left by the first proposition, if any; and when the county came to extricate itself from the "legal" trap set for it in the second proposition of the second division of this "basis" it might find itself minus thousands of dollars besides. If there is a "misunderstanding between the city and the county," there need be none as to the nature and scope of this proposition. If I had denounced it as a "juggle" as well as "unjust and unfair" it would have been fully sustained by an investigation of its merits.

I am a poor hand at telling a story, and seldom indulge in such levity, but here is a short one so exactly in point that you must excuse me for breaking over my rule for once.

An Emerald Islander, once went into a grocery and called for "six cents worth we crackers," they were placed before him and after a minute he says, I think I will not take the crackers, they look hard, take them back and give me the worth of them in whisky. This being done, Patrick drinks the whisky and turns to leave. "Hold on," says the grocery man, "I want pay for the whisky." "The whisky" says Pat, "sure I give you the crackers for it." "Yes" was the reply "but you did not pay me for the crackers." "Now don't you bate the world for an old cormorant" says Pat, "sure you have got the crackers, now do you want me to pay you for them too." Pats logic is no more absurd than that of this "basis" and reaches the same end. The city sold to the county, and received its pay, certain taxes, which the county in turn sold to A. B. and C; these taxes proved to be worthless and the county is compelled to refund, to make them good to those purchasers, and when she calls upon the city, to do the same by her, our city fathers meet it with an insulting proposition, which if acceded to, would absolutely cancel its whole claim against the city, and leave her in debt for cost of adjudicating it besides; and yet Mr. Bates says he is "unable to ascertain any other mode of settlement than the proposition made by the council."

Now if Mr. Bates can't see any other mode, it is fair to presume the council can't; they ought therefore to be thankful to any one who will extricate them from the dilemma. Permit me therefore to suggest to them that the following would be not only much more just, but sure to effect a speedy settlement, and allay that feeling of bitterness and deep animosity that is growing up in the hearts of the people of the county against the city of Janesville:

To the Commissioners of Rock County:

GENTLEMEN:—It gives us great pleasure to inform you that this city is now in a po-[illegible] to perform an a[illegible] of [illegible] unavoidably, delayed justice. The city treasurer has been instructed to pay over to the county treasurer, all the moneys in his hands derived from the re-assessed taxes of 1854, '55, '56 and '57, and receive for them cancelled certificates of the sale of lands for taxes in this city during those years. If the amount so derived is not sufficient to meet your demand, he is instructed to present for your acceptance tax certificates of the city of Janesville on lands and lots sold for the taxes for those years. If this should fall short of the demand we will meet the balance of it by an endorsement on a due bill held by the city against Rock county. We respectfully submit that inasmuch as this city has been at great expause in procuring a law to re-assess those taxes, and in litigating the same, the county should deduct from its account against the city, those items charged as "costs on judgments against the county," which we believe are not legally if justly chargable to the city as the interest is included in your account, the city treasurer will cast the interest on your due bill in his hands.

With sentiments of great respect, &c.,
(Signed by the Mayor.)

A proposition something like this would have been alike honoaable to the city and satisfactory to the county, and would have fully justified Mr. Bates in trusting that "no ill feelings will exist between the city and the county." A settlement would have been effected on this basis, in one day, and without the least prejudice to the interest of the city whatever. JUSTICE.

From the Chicago Journal.

Letter From Charleston Harbor.

The following is an extract from a private letter written on board the New Ironsides, in Charleston harbor, to a friend in this city. It is dated Nov. 10th:

"Gen. Gillmore has now opened the old captured forts, Wagner and Gregg, against Forts Johnson, Castle Pinckney and Sumter. The rebels still hold Fort Sumter, but it must fall soon. Our monitors—four of them—are now thundering away at the sea face of that fort, and our 15-inch shells make quite a scattering of bricks and sand, Our 'big black devil,' as the rebels call our ship, is lying under the guns of Fort Moultrie and Battery Bee. But the rebels have better sense than to open a gun upon us, for their policy is, while the 'black devil' is quiet, to let him alone. So we tantalise them by looking into their forts, and they dare not open a gun. They are very much 'down in the mouth' on account of their failure to blow us up with the torpedo, and for my part I think it was a miracle that they did not blow us sky high, for they had 600 pounds of powder in that torpedo, and it exploded under us. So we are now considered both shot and torpedo proof. They think so much of us in Charleston that they are getting up a purse of $50,000 in gold to be offered as a reward to any one who will invent a machine to destroy, capture or sink 'the notorious black devil.' But our boys are up to all their tricks now, and we have a torpedo-fender constructed around our sides—long poles, with a hawser fastened at the ends, to keep them off, and all hands are at their guns all night, so if they try us again in the night, they will find themselves wonderfully mistaken."

As you Were.

(From Harper's Weekly.)

The gentleman who calls mad rioters and assassins his friends, lately said in a public speech that in spite of the Vice-President we will have the Union-as-it-was. His friends responded with "tremendous applause." But in one or two little points, the Union will not be much-as-it-was in the days of Buchanan as in those of Washington.

For instance, in the Union-as-it-was ten years ago Mr. Horatio Seymour of New York, could go into Carolina or Georgia, and say what he pleased of public affairs, and Mr. William H. Seward of New York, his equal fellow-citizen could not. In the Union-as-it-will-be, and as-it-was when it was made, Mr. Horatio Seymour will have no privilege which Mr. Seward has not.

Then in the Union as-it-was two years ago chattel slavery existed in several of the states. But in the Union as-it-was-meant-to-be, there will be no chattel slavery in those states.

Again, in the Union as-it-was when Mr. Seymour was for the first time Governor of New York, and gave Miss Murray, Victoria's lady of honor, those charming views of the delights of slavery which she reproduced in her book, it was enough to secure great reputation as a "national statesman," that a man should become the nimble lackey of slavery. In the Union-as-it-will-be the test of nationality will be devotion to liberty and equal rights, and not to the interest of an aristocratic party.

The Union-as-it-was in the days of Washington, according to Mr. Alexander H. Stevens, was made by our men who believed that slavery was dying out. The Union-as-it-was in the days of Buchanan, Toucey, Cobb, Floyd, and Thompson, was officered by men who resolved that slavery should live and grow. That is the Union which our worthy Governor says he means to have. The Union-as-it-was-made is that for which Vice-President Hamlin pronounces. Do wise men think that the country will follow Vallandigham, Seymour, and Fernando Wood, or Washington, Jefferson, and Abraham Lincoln?

SERIOUS CHARGE AGAINST LORD PALMERSTON.—"Karl Blind," the London correspondent of the St. Louis Westliche Post, writes that paper as follows:

Day before yesterday Lord Palmerston celebrated his eightieth—say eightieth—birthday, and almost on the same day a suit of crim. con. is brought against him. The occurrence seems, impossible, absurd—indeed, considering all the circumstances, a perfect enormity—and yet it is true. The English papers do not mention one word of the matter, but in a few well-informed circles it is spoken of to-day.

By an exceptional circumstance I am able to communicate to you the particulars of this affair. The authority from which I derive the following facts has seen the original documents referred to. From certain reasons I suppress the name of the plaintiff. I will merely say that it commences with an "O." The lady in question is young, pretty and charming. Her photograph is among the douuments in court. Confidential letters of the accused are also in the testimony. In order to prove the authenticity of these letters, the plaintiff's counsel introduced a letter of Lord Palmerston's, which he wrote after he had received the first proposals to make an "arrangement," and which he—it is hard to understand why—wrote himself, instead of getting his secretary to write it.

The case is now pending before the "probate and divorce court," but it is a deep state secret. The plaintiff demands twenty thousand pounds damage. According to all appearances, Lord Palmerston has been led into the affair by an intrigue; as "Old Cupido," (his well known nickname,) he could not resist of course. In those circles where the affair is known, great ex-[illegible] occurrence will politically damage Old Pam, at court and otherwise. The case is almost without a parallel of its kind.

Since the above was written the London Star, the Liverpool and Dublin papers have given more or less particulars of the affair. The name of the injured husband is O'Kane.

REPORTED FOR THE DAILY GAZETTE.

BY WISCONSIN STATE TELEGRAPH LINE, Office in Union Passenger Depot

Last Night's Report.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 23.

The Washington Star says: Gen. Thomas is taking advantage of Longstreet's movement against Burnside.

The Washington Republican—extra—says: At dawn this morning, the Grand Army of the Potomac broke camp near the north bank of the Rapidan, and, with ten days' rations, commenced an advance movement upon the enemy. It is supposed that before noon the whole army would be across the Rapidan.

MADISON, Wis., Nov. 23.

Special to Chicago Tribune.—Adj. Gen. Gaylord publishes an executive order to day assigning the quotas to the several districts, counties and towns under the president's call for three hundred thousand volunteers.

An earnest appeal is made by the governor for the earnest co-operation of the patriotic by public meetings, and such other means as they may deem proper to obviate the necessity of drafting; 10,281 men are wanted as follows:

First congressional district, 2,204; second district, 1,829; third district, 1,414; fourth district, 1,432; fifth district, 1,697; sixth district, 1,705.

Recruiting detachments from the 2d, 5th, 6th, 7th and 16th regiments have arrived here.

Letters from the 23d regiment, engaged in the recent fight in Louisiana, say the wounded prisoners were exchanged except officers, who were sent to Texas.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 23.

Special to Chicago Times.—The advices received by government are of a corresponding tenor to those furnished by the newspapers, and show a little more confidence in Burnside's ability to hold out.

It is published here that Thomas' army is on the move, and Longstreet may find troops in his rear before he can successfully besiege Burnside, which will compel him to retreat or run the risk of being cut off.

To-Day's Report.

AFTERNOON DISPATCHES.

NEW YORK, Nov. 24.

Flour less active, 5c lower; wheat dull, heavy, 1a2c lower; barley steady; oats less active, 1a2c lower; pork quick; stocks dull, lower; money easier, 6a7c; gold 51½.

ST. JOHNS, N. F., Nov. 24.

The Arabia from Liverpool the 14th, and Queenstown the 15th, passed Cape Race last evening. Dates two days later. The gale preventad the yacht from boarding her.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 24.

A letter received here to-day, from an officer in Gilmore's army states, upon the authority of rebel deserters, that several shells recently thown from battery Gregg, fell in the street in the heart of Charleston, killing several persons, among them an officer of the 2d North Carolina artillery, and firing several dwellings.

It is understood that General Sigel is to take General Schenck's place in command of Baltimore, after the later takes his seat in the house.

There is no truth in the Cincinnati Enquirer's story that Secretary Chase's resignation was in the hands of the President, sent in view of Judge Taney's resignation, and for the purpose of succession to his place on the supreme bench.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 24.

Nothing additional from Burnside. Cannonading still heard. Battle anticipated between Grant and Bragg to-day.

CHATTANOOGA, Nov. 23.

Special to Commercial.—Desarters last night reported that the rebels are falling back to Chickamauga station. Their artillery has been withdrawn from our front, the whole army apparently in retreat. A reconnoissance, this afternoon, revealed the enemy apparently in force between us and Missionary Ridge. General Wood, charging up to Orchard Ridge, carried the rifle pits, under severe musketry and artillery fire, taking 200 prisoners.

We now hold all the high ground this side of Missionary Ridge. Our troops are in line of battle, and will lie on their arms to-night. Hard fighting is inevitable to-morrow, unless the rebels withdraw to-night.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 24.

C. W. Hall, horse contractor for the government, was found guilty, sentenced to six months' imprisonment and $10,000, for defrauding the government in purchasing horses.

MILWAUKEE, Nov. 24.

Flour dull and quiet. Wheat declining; sales No. 1 spring in store at 1,11a1,12; No. 2 in store at 1,05a1,06. Oats in store at 64c.

TOBACCO GROWING IN PENNSYLVANIA.—The farmers of Pennsylvania are paying increased attention to tobacco cultivation, and this year the yield of this state will be quite large. In 1860 there were, by the census returns, 3,181,586 pounds raised in this state, there being only 912,651 in 1850. This year it will probably be much larger than in 1860, as considerable more land has been put under cultivation. The largest production of tobacco was in Virginia before the rebellion. In 1860 it reached 126,968,000 pounds.

HAS TAKEN A SET OF ROOMS at the MYERS HOUSE, where he will be permanently located and practice every department of

in all its branches. He will not only make teeth to order for his patients, but intends to keep on hand a large assortment of teeth for Dentists. He makes teeth so cheap that none need to go without teeth—Every variety of style, from five to sixty dollars per set, and imitates nature with such precision that they cannot be distinguished from the natural teeth, with one exception, that is, they never ache! He puts no nerves in them.

Medicated Vapor Baths.

Doctor BURRUS is making arrangements to give medicated vapor baths at the Myers House, where the accommodations are ample for at least one hundred patients. He has attended lectures at three different medical colleges, and had opportunities of witnessing extensive clinical practice, besides spending several months at the Elmira Water Cure, N. Y., where there was from one to two hundred patients treated for every variety of chronic disease. More patients were cured by the vapor bath, of Rheumatism, Gout, Scrofula, Bronchitis, Asthma, Chronic sore throat, Incipient Consumption, and that class of diseases known by the name of Female Weakness, than by all other known remedies put together. There is no remedy so well adapted to the cure of skin diseases and so certain in its effects as the vapor bath. No doubt but it will be found an efficient remedy in Diphtheria.

The Daily Gazette.

City of Janesville.

Tuesday Evening, Nov'r 24, 1863.

Official Paper of the City.

Forever float that standard sheet—
Where breathes the foe but falls before us?
With Freedom's soil beneath our feet,
And Freedom's banner streaming o'er us!

Probable Battle at Chattanooga.

Our dispatches make it almost certain that a great battle is being fought, to-day, at Chattanooga, Gen. Grant's forces making the attack.

Quota for Rock County.

The quota assigned to Rock county by the governor in the next draft, is 535.

The State Finances.

The Secretary of State, and State Treasurer, have each made their reports for the fiscal year ending the 30th of September. The receipts into the general fund for the year, amount to $850,376,12, to which is added transfer from funds $2,503,09, and the balance of last year, amounting to $166,523,04, making a total for the year of $1,019,402,25.

The payments out of this general fund amount to $810,940,55, leaving a balance on hand, Sept. 30, 1863, of $205,968,61.

This is for the ordinary running expenses of the state government, its charitable institutions, and interest, and has nothing to do with the various other funds managed by the state officers, such as the school, swamp-land, drainage, allotment, war fund, &c., &c.

The receipts into the State treasury, for its general expenditures, which making up aggregate of $850,376,12, consists, principally, of taxes from counties, $607,590,22, railroads, $107,561,10, banks, $52,208,49, lisenses, $18,360,35, premium on gold in the state treasury $10,520,21, sale of state bonds $50,000, &c.

Our state prison and charitable institutions cost the state $97,502,25.

The interest on the state debt, last year, $104,512,97, and the debt is $1,720,000.

It is not our purpose to give a statement of the condition of each fund. It would occupy too much space, but their magnitude may be judged from the fact that the total amount of all the different funds, during the year, was $2,949,105,67.

The war fund itself, for 1862–63, amounted to $807,929,31, and since the war commenced, $2,248,304.

The allotment fund is also considerable, amounting during the last year, to $483,-933,62.

The finances of the state appear to have been well managed and it is fortunate that most of those having control of them are to be continued in their offices during the next two years.

THE VOTE OF NEW YORK—OFFICIAL.—The official returns of the New York election show a Union majority of 29,505, being a Union gain, as compared with Seymour's vote, of 40,257. The total vote compares as follows:

	1863.	1862.
Union	314,442	295,897
Copperhead	284,937	306,649
	599,379	602,546

CHICAGO DRY GOODS MARKET.—The Journal of the 23d says that "there was an active demand for all descriptions of staple dry goods last week, and the market was firm but not quotably higher. To-day there is a strong disposition to put up prices, but the report that General Banks has captured 250,000 bales of cotton in Texas will check any upward movement, if it does not cause a decline."

☞ The western newspaper publishers are to hold a convention at Chicago on the 17th of December to secure an improvement in telegraphic reports to western papers. It is a much needed reform.

THE RIOT RINGLEADER, ANDREWS.—The notorious Andrews, of the leaders in the New York riots of July, who was taken charge of by the general government and assigned to Fort Lafayette, has now been handed over for trial to the state authorities. It is to be hoped that full justice will be meted out to the peace-disturbing Virginian.

COLORED CHAPLAINS.—The president has just made another innovation and the copperheads are requested to howl. He has appointed a colored chaplain for the benefit of the black troops in South Carolina, and other colored chaplains will be appointed as the negro army increases in size. Thus is radicalism running riot! Black troops and black chaplains to preach to and pray for them!

CHATTANOOGA AND CHICKAMAUGA.—A Choctaw scholar, writing to the New Orleans Era, gives the following meanings of the words Chickamauga and Chattanooga, which have now gone into history:

Chickamauga is from Chicka, little or small, and Oka, water, Little Water, the name of the small stream on which the late great battles were fought.

Chattanooga is Moccasin Track, and takes its name from the bends of the river, above which, or the bend above the toe of the moccasin, lies the town of Chattanooga. Moccasin Point, from which the federal batteries bombarded those of the confederates on Lookout Mountain, is at the toe of the moccasin. The mountain rises below this and along the sole of it. The "moccasin track" is at once suggested by all who view the landscape from Lookout Mountain.

That Basis.

Messrs. Editors:—As nothing is more clear in logic than that a conclusion from a hypothesis cannot be more certainly true than the hypothesis itself; and as it is equally clear that no case adjudicated upon an unjust predicate can be otherwise than unjust; you will, I trust, bear with me while I examine these propositions, laid down as a basis of settlement with the county by our common council, and see if they don't come under these rules.

Their first proposition reads thus: "The city to have credit for all the said taxes raised for city purposes." Now why the city should have credit for these taxes the council has not seen fit to tell us, and for the life of me I cannot see upon what grounds the claim is based; for, if you will refer to the returns in the county treasurer's office, and to his books, you will find that all the taxes raised for city purposes, and not collected by the city treasurer, for those years, were returned, with the uncollected state, county, school and street taxes, to the county, and by her received and paid for; by which act they became the sole property of the county, as much so as the safes in its offices, or the certificates and money in its safes; and for the city to set up a claim to any part of those taxes so returned evinces a recklessness that no language proper for me to use here can fitly characterise.

It is unnecessary for me to enquire wether the city was, or was not, legally bound to make good those taxes; they have been reassessed, and to a great extent paid; but somehow the money has got into the city treasury, instead of the county, where it belongs, and the question now is, how to get it out.

There can be no question of the right of the county to every dollar of this money, but as the council have demanded a part of it, let us see how much they propose to take. By referring to the assessment rolls of the city for those four years, it will be found that the aggregate assessment for city purposes, exclusive of the street taxes, amount to $130,134.09, and the amount for state and county purposes to only $34,-338.19, being nearly four times the amount of the latter. Now the whole amount claimed by the county of the city is $31,-549.82, which, excluding the street taxes of $8,884.61, leaves $22,665.21, of which $17,945.37 is made up of returned city taxes, and $4,719,84 of state and county taxes; and this latter sum is all the council is willing to give the county credit for, while it claims the larger sum for the city. Of course these figures are based on the assumption that the relative proportions in the returned taxes are equal with the assessments, which is not the case exactly. For many persons, particularly in 1856 and '57, paid their state and county tax and left the city tax unpaid. This of course would lessen the amount given to the county still further, and swell the amount claimed for the city.

Now, an unsophisticated individual might think at a first glance, that the council meant to hand this amount over to the county; but look again and behold the whale that is prepared in the 3d and 4th propositions to swallow up a part, if not the whole of even this small sum.

The cost of getting through, and litigating the reassessment law is not stated, nor the amount of property "not liable to assessment," they are unknown sums, and would undoubtedly, if the "basis" was accepted, swallow all that was left by the first proposition, if any; and when the county came to extricate itself from the "legal" trap set for it in the second proposition of the second division of this "basis" it might find itself minus thousands of dollars besides. If there is a "misunderstanding between the city and the county," there need be none as to the nature and scope of this proposition. If I had denounced it as a "juggle" as well as "unjust and unfair" it would have been fully sustained by an investigation of its merits.

I am a poor hand at telling a story, and seldom indulge in such levity, but here is a short one so exactly in point that you must excuse me for breaking over my rule for once.

An Emerald Islander, once went into a grocery and called for "six cents worth we crackers," they were placed before him and after a minute he says, I think I will not take the crackers, they look hard, take them back and give me the worth of them in whisky. This being done, Patrick drinks the whisky and turns to leave. "Hold on," says the grocery man, "I want pay for the whisky." "The whisky" says Pat, "sure I give you the crackers for it." "Yes" was the reply "but you did not pay me for the crackers." "Now don't you bate the world for an old cormorant" says Pat, "sure you have got the crackers, now do you want me to pay you for them too." Pats logic is no more absurd than that of this "basis" and reaches the same end. The city sold to the county, and received its pay, certain taxes, which the county in turn sold to A. B. and C; these taxes proved to be worthless and the county is compelled to refund, to make them good to those purchasers, and when she calls upon the city, to do the same by her, our city fathers meet it with an insulting proposition, which if acceded to, would absolutely cancel its whole claim against the city, and leave her in debt for cost of adjudicating it besides; and yet Mr. Bates says he is "unable to ascertain any other mode of settlement than the proposition made by the council."

Now if Mr. Bates can't see any other mode, it is fair to presume the council can't; they ought therefore to be thankful to any one who will extricate them from the dilemma. Permit me therefore to suggest to them that the following would be not only much more just, but sure to effect a speedy settlement, and allay that feeling of bitterness and deep animosity that is growing up in the hearts of the people of the county against the city of Janesville:

To the Commissioners of Rock County:

GENTLEMEN:—It gives us great pleasure to inform you that this city is now in a position to perform an act of long, though unavoidably, delayed justice. The city treasurer has been instructed to pay over to the county treasurer, all the moneys in his hands derived from the re-assessed taxes of 1854, '55, '56 and '57, and receive for them cancelled certificates of the sale of lands for taxes in this city during those years. If the amount so derived is not sufficient to meet your demand, he is instructed to present for your acceptance tax certificates of the city of Janesville on lands and lots sold for the taxes for those years. If this should fall short of the demand we will meet the balance of it by an endorsement on a due bill held by the city against Rock county. We respectfully submit that inasmuch as this city has been at great expanse in procuring a law to re-assess those taxes, and in litigating the same, the county should deduct from its account against the city, those items charged as "costs on judgments against the county," which we believe are not legally if justly chargable to the city as the interest is included in your account, the city treasurer will cast the interest on your due bill in his hands.

With sentiments of great respect, &c.,

(Signed by the Mayor.)

A proposition something like this would have been alike honoasble to the city and satisfactory to the county, and would have fully justified Mr. Bates in trusting that "no ill feelings will exist between the city and the county." A settlement would have been effected on this basis, in one day, and without the least prejudice to the interest of the city whatever. JUSTICE.

From the Chicago Journal.

Letter From Charleston Harbor.

The following is an extract from a private letter written on board the New Ironsides, in Charleston harbor, to a friend in this city. It is dated Nov. 10th:

"Gen. Gillmore has now opened the old captured forts, Wagner and Gregg, against Forts Johnson, Castle Pinckney and Sumter. The rebels still hold Fort Sumter, but it must fall soon. Our monitors—four of them—are now thundering away at the sea face of that fort, and our 15-inch shells make quite a scattering of bricks and sand. Our 'big black devil,' as the rebels call our ship, is lying under the guns of Fort Moultrie and Battery Bee. But the rebels have better sense than to open a gun upon us, for their policy is, while the 'black devil' is quiet, to let him alone. So we tantalise them by looking into their forts, and they dare not open a gun. They are very much 'down in the mouth' on account of their failure to blow us up with the torpedo, and for my part I think it was a miracle that they did not blow us sky high, for they had 600 pounds of powder in that torpedo, and it exploded under us. So we are now considered both shot and torpedo proof. They think so much of us in Charleston that they are getting up a purse of $50,000 in gold to be offered as a reward to any one who will invent a machine to destroy, capture or sink 'the notorious black devil.' But our boys are up to all their tricks now, and we have a torpedo-fender constructed around our sides—long poles, with a hawser fastened at the ends, to keep them off, and all hands are at their guns all night, so if they try us again in the night, they will find themselves wonderfully mistaken."

As you Were.

(From Harper's Weekly.)

The gentleman who calls mad rioters and assassins his friends, lately said in a public speech that in spite of the Vice-President we will have the Union-as-it-was. His friends responded with "tremendnous applause." But in one or two little points, the Union will not be much-as-it-was in the days of Buchanan as in those of Washington.

For instance, in the Union-as-it-was ten years ago Mr. Horatio Seymour of New York, could go into Carolina or Georgia, and say what he pleased of public affairs, and Mr. William H. Seward of New York, his equal fellow-citizen could not. In the Union-as-it-will-be, and as-it-was when it was made, Mr. Horatio Seymour will have no privilege which Mr. Seward has not.

Then in the Union as-it-was two years ago chattel slavery existed in several of the states. But in the Union as-it-was-meant-to-be, there will be no chattel slavery in those states.

Again, in the Union as-it-was when Mr. Seymour was for the first time Governor of New York, and gave Miss Murray, Victoria's lady of honor, those charming views of the delights of slavery which she reproduced in her book, it was enough to secure great reputation as a "national statesman," that a man should become the nimble lackey of slavery. In the Union-as-it-will-be the test of nationality will be devotion to liberty and equal rights, and not to the interest of an aristocratic party.

The Union-as-it-was in the days of Washington, according to Mr. Alexander H. Stevens, was made by our men who believed that slavery was dying out. The Union-as-it-was in the days of Buchanan, Toucey, Cobb, Floyd, and Thompson, was officered by men who resolved that slavery should live and grow. That is the Union which our worthy Governor says he means to have. The Union-as-it-was-made is that for which Vice-President Hamlin pronounces. Do wise men think that the country will follow Vallandigham, Seymour, and Fernando Wood, or Washington, Jefferson, and Abraham Lincoln?

SERIOUS CHARGE AGAINST LORD PALMERSTON.—"Karl Blind," the London correspondent of the St. Louis Westliche Post, writes that paper as follows:

Day before yesterday Lord Palmerston celebrated his eightieth—say eightieth—birthday, and almost on the same day a suit of crim. con. is brought against him. The occurrence seems impossible, absurd—indeed, considering all the circumstances, a perfect enormity—and yet it is true. The English papers do not mention one word of the matter, but in a few well-informed circles it is spoken of to-day.

By an exceptional circumstance I am able to communicate to you the particulars of this affair. The authority from which I derive the following facts has seen the original documents referred to. From certain reasons I suppress the name of the plaintiff. I will merely say that it commences with an "O." The lady in question is young, pretty and charming. Her photograph is among the documents in court. Confidential letters of the accused are also in the testimony. In order to prove the authenticity of these letters, the plaintiff's counsel introduced a letter of Lord Palmerston's, which he wrote after he had received the first proposals to make an "arrangement," and which he—it is hard to understand why—wrote himself, instead of getting his secretary to write it.

The case is now pending before the "probate and divorce court," but it is a deep state secret. The plaintiff demands twenty thousand pounds damage. According to all appearances, Lord Palmerston has been led into the affair by an intrigue; as "Old Cupido," (his well known nickname,) he could not resist of course. In those circles where the affair is known, great excitement prevails. It is thought that the occurrence will politically damage Old Pam, at court and otherwise. The case is almost without a parallel of its kind.

Since the above was written the London Star, the Liverpool and Dublin papers have given more or less particulars of the affair. The name of the injured husband is O'Kane.

Last Night's Report.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 23.

The Washington Star says: Gen. Thomas is taking advantage of Longstreet's movement against Burnside.

The Washington Republican—extra—says: At dawn this morning, the Grand Army of the Potomac broke camp near the north bank of the Rapidan, and, with ten days' rations, commenced an advance movement upon the enemy. It is supposed that before noon the whole army would be across the Rapidan.

MADISON, Wis., Nov. 23.

Special to Chicago Tribune.—Adj. Gen. Gaylord publishes an executive order to day assigning the quotas to the several districts, counties and towns under the president's call for three hundred thousand volunters.

An earnest appeal is made by the governor for the earnest co-operation of the patriotic by public meetings, and such other means as they may deem proper to obviate the necessity of drafting; 10,281 men are wanted as follows:

First congressional district, 2,204; second district, 1,829; third district, 1,414; fourth district, 1,432; fifth district, 1,697; sixth district, 1,705.

Recruiting detachments from the 2d, 5th, 6th, 7th and 16th regiments have arrived here.

Letters from the 23d regiment, engaged in the recent fight in Louisiana, say the wounded prisoners were exchanged except officers, who were sent to Texas.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 23.

Special to Chicago Times.—The advices received by government are of a corresponding tenor to those furnished by the newspapers, and show a little more confidence in Burnside's ability to hold out.

It is published here that Thomas' army is on the move, and Longstreet may find troops in his rear before he can successfully besiege Burnside, which will compel him to retreat or run the risk of being cut off.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 24.

A letter received here to-day, from an officer in Gilmore's army states, upon the authority of rebel deserters, that several shells recently thown from battery Gregg, fell in the street in the heart of Charleston, killing several persons, among them an officer of the 2d North Carolina artillery, and firing several dwellings.

It is understood that General Sigel is to take General Schenck's place in command of Baltimore, after the later takes his seat in the house.

There is no truth in the Cincinnati Enquiror's story that Secretary Chase's resignation was in the hands of the President, sent in view of Judge Taney's resignation, and for the purpose of succession to his place on the supreme bench.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 24.

Nothing additional from Burnside. Cannonading still heard. Battle anticipated between Grant and Bragg to-day.

CHATTANOOGA, Nov. 23.

Special to Commercial.—Deserters last night reported that the rebels are falling back to Chickamauga station. Their artillery has been withdrawn from our front, the whole army apparently in retreat. A reconnoissance, this afternoon, revealed the enemy apparently in force between us and Missionary Ridge. General Wood, charging up to Orchard Ridge, carried the rifle pits, under severe musketry and artillery fire, taking 200 prisoners.

We now hold all the high ground this side of Missionary Ridge. Our troops are in line of battle, and will lie on their arms to-night. Hard fighting is inevitable to-morrow, unless the rebels withdraw to-night.

TOBACCO GROWING IN PENNSYLVANIA.—The farmers of Pennsylvania are paying increased attention to tobacco cultivation, and this year the yield of this state will be quite large. In 1860 there were, by the census returns, 3,181,586 pounds raised in this state, there being only 912,651 in 1850. This year it will probably be much larger than in 1860, as considerable more land has been put under cultivation. The largest production of tobacco was in Virginia before the rebellion. In 1860 it reached 128,968,000 pounds.

WYNKOOP'S ICELAND PECTORAL.

Diseases of the throat, chest and pulmonary organs are ever prevalent; insidious and dangerous. The properties of a medicine to alleviate, cure and uproot these complaints, must be expectorant, anodyne and invigorating, loosening the mucus of the throat, and imparting tone to the entire system. No discovery in medical science ever mastered this class of diseases like Dr. Wynkoop's Iceland Pectoral. It is used with the most astonishing results in all cases of bronchitis, influenza whooping cough, diptheria or putrid sore throat, asthma, croup, coughs, colds, nervous irritability, &c.

The Rev. J. J. Potter certifies, "that I have used Dr Wynkoop's Pectoral for several years, myself and in my family, for severe pulmonary complaints, and have recommended it to many others, and have never seen its equal." Rev. J. J. POTTER, Brooklyn, N. Y.

Hundreds and thousands of important testimonials could be produced, showing its remarkable cures and that it never fails.

It is composed of pure Iceland moss, Balm of Gilead, Peruvian balsam, elecampane, comfrey, burdock, and other invaluable expectorant and tonic ingredients. It is harmless, prompt and lasting. Invalids and sufferers cannot afford to neglect a trial. Every family should have it. It is remarkable for croup. Full descriptions, recommendations and directions accompany each bottle.

Lecture of Mr. Dickinson.

Our citizens need no incentive to induce them to attend the lecture of Hon. D. S. Dickinson Thursday evening. The reputation of the lecturer and the subject upon which he speaks is abundantly sufficient to fill the hall, if the desire to see and hear a man of whom so much has been said did not add a motive for attendance. It is moreover due that the society which has taken the responsibility of engaging him should be sustained in the effort they have made to give the public a lecture of rare merit and unusual attraction.

Tickets for the lecture can be procured at the bookstores of Dearborn and Sutherland, and at the hall.

"SOCIAL VISIT."—The friends of the Rev. Mr. Goodspeed, it will be remembered, meet him at the Myers House dining hall to-morrow evening. As a citizen and as a clergyman he is well deserving of any mark of respect bestowed upon him.

An oyster supper with hot coffee will be served.

FOUND DEAD.—Michael Dorsey, a man about 60 years old, was found dead this morning near the water tank in the 4th ward.

CHILD BURNED TO DEATH.—Sarah Ann Hunt, a child about 6 years old, daughter of Joseph B. Hunt, of the town of Harmony, was so severely burned yesterday forenoon that she died this morning. She opened the door of the stove to put in a stick of wood, and her dress caught fire and burned her so severely that death followed in about twenty hours after.

LEVEE TO-NIGHT.—The levee of General Tom Thumb and his party to-night will be the last one given in this city.

PUBLIC SCHOOLS.—The public schools of this city will not be in session on Thursday and Friday of this week.

The teachers' meeting on Saturday morning will be omitted.

Dated Nov. 24, 1863.

H. N. COMSTOCK,
Clerk of Board of Ed.

ATLANTIC FOR DECEMBER.—Dearborn, at the corner store, has the Atlantic for December. Also all the leading daily papers and magazines.

MADAME VARIAN'S CONCERT.—This concert, to which the musical people of the city have looked forward with much interest, takes place at Lappin's Hall to-morrow evening. The programme exhibits a choice selection of pieces in which the full powers of the singer can be exhibited, and the style is sufficiently varied to suit the taste of all, while the lovers of the piano will find in Mr. Hoffman an accomplished performer.

In the printed bills for circulation it is stated that a diagram of the hall can be found at Darling's music store, and reserved seats secured there. This is an error. Wilson's music store is the place to see the diagram and secure the seats.

SNOW STORM.—An old-fashioned snow storm set in sometime last night and continues as we go to press. The merry jingle of sleigh bells will be heard in our streets as soon as the storm comes to an end.

Late from Knoxville.

The Chicago Tribune's special correspondent at Knoxville, under date of the 17th, writes as follows:

The passage of the Tennessee river at London by the rebels was effected on the 14th, and the same evening Gen. Burnside in person led the movement to check their progress, which, however, failed, from the overwhelming numbers of the enemy, Longstreet bringing over his whole column with little delay. On Sunday last, the rebels also had a skirmish with Shackleford's force a few miles above here. They have also been pushing in our outposts from Marysville, giving in all respects and at all these several points a critical aspect to the situation.

The greatest excitement already prevails here. Loyal East Tennesseeans are for the first time awakening to the discovery that our stay here may be short, and that the rebels will, after all, winter here. Even Brownlow, courageous and unflinching, sees the danger. And, indeed, I have already indicated it. The failure of the Chickamauga fight, unless speedily redeemed, fixes the fate of this expedition and the question of our remaining in East Tennessee. Rumors of a change of commanders begin to be once more rife. It is whispered that irreconcilable differences between Burnside and Halleck have caused the former to decide upon resigning. Whoever may be his successor, this little army will sadly part with a commander who under circumstances and experiences so trying has been ever bold, patient and an exemplar in all that is soldierly. Unless material and speedy aid reaches this army from other points, and the campaign at Chattanooga, of which it is a pendant, is carried out, there can be but one issue to the present federal occupation of East Tennessee.

THE SINGER SEWING MACHINES.

Our LETTER A FAMILY SEWING MACHINE is fast gaining a world-wide reputation. It is beyond doubt the best and cheapest and most beautiful of all Family Sewing Machines yet offered to the public. No other Family Sewing Machine has so many useful appliances for hemming, binding, felling, tucking, gathering, gauging, braiding, embroidering, cording, and so forth. No other Family Sewing Machine has so much capacity for a great variety of work. It will sew all kinds of cloth, and with all kinds of thread. Great and recent improvements make our Family Sewing Machine most reliable, and most durable, and most certain in action at all rates of speed. It makes the interlocked stitch which is the best stitch known. Any one, even of the most ordinary capacity, can see, at a glance, how to use the letter A Family Sewing Machine. Our Family Sewing Machines are finished in chaste and exquisite style.

The Folding Case of the Family Machine is a piece of cunning workmanship of the most useful kind. It protects the machine when not in use, and when about to be operated may be opened as a spacious and substantial table to sustain the work. While some of the Cases, made out of the choicest woods, are finished in the simplest and chastest manner possible, others are adorned and embellished in the most costly and superb manner

It is absolutely necessary to see the Family Machine in operation, so as to judge of its great capacity and beauty.

It is fast becoming as popular for family sewing as our Manufacturing machines are for manufacturing purposes.

The Branch Offices are well supplied with silk, twist, thread, needles, oil, &c., of the very best quality,

Lecture of Mr. Dickinson.

Our citizens need no incentive to induce them to attend the lecture of Hon. D. S. Dickinson Thursday evening. The reputation of the lecturer and the subject upon which he speaks is abundantly sufficient to fill the hall, if the desire to see and hear a man of whom so much has been said did not add a motive for attendance. It is moreover due that the society which has taken the responsibility of engaging him should be sustained in the effort they have made to give the public a lecture of rare merit and unusual attraction.

Tickets for the lecture can be procured at the bookstores of Dearborn and Sutherland, and at the hall.

"SOCIAL VISIT."—The friends of the Rev. Mr. Goodspeed, it will be remembered, meet him at the Myers House dining hall to-morrow evening. As a citizen and as a clergyman he is well deserving of any mark of respect bestowed upon him.

An oyster supper with hot coffee will be served.

FOUND DEAD.—Michael Dorsey, a man about 60 years old, was found dead this morning near the water tank in the 4th ward.

CHILD BURNED TO DEATH.—Sarah Ann Hunt, a child about 6 years old, daughter of Joseph B. Hunt, of the town of Harmony, was so severely burned yesterday forenoon, that she died this morning. She opened the door of the stove to put in a stick of wood, and her dress caught fire and burned her so severely that death followed in about twenty hours after.

LEVEE TO-NIGHT.—The levee of General Tom Thumb and his party to-night will be the last one given in this city.

PUBLIC SCHOOLS.—The public schools of this city will not be in session on Thursday and Friday of this week.

The teachers' meeting on Saturday morning will be omitted.

Dated Nov. 24, 1863.

Clerk of Board of Ed.

ATLANTIC FOR DECEMBER.—Dearborn, at the corner store, has the Atlantic for December. Also all the leading daily papers and magazines.

MADAME VARIAN'S CONCERT.—This concert, to which the musical people of the city have looked forward with much interest, takes place at Lappin's Hall to-morrow evening. The programme exhibits a choice selection of pieces in which the full powers of the singer can be exhibited, and the style is sufficiently varied to suit the taste of all, while the lovers of the piano will find in Mr. Hoffman an accomplished performer.

In the printed bills for circulation it is stated that a diagram of the hall can be found at Darling's music store, and reserved seats secured there. This is an error. Wilson's music store is the place to see the diagram and secure the seats.

SNOW STORM.—An old-fashioned snow storm set in sometime last night and continues as we go to press. The merry jingle of slegh bells will be heard in our streets as soon as the storm comes to an end.

Late from Knoxville.

The Chicago Tribune's special correspondent at Knoxville, under date of the 17th, writes as follows:

The passage of the Tennessee river at London by the rebels was effected on the 14th, and the same evening Gen. Burnside in person led the movement to check their progress, which, however, failed, from the overwhelming numbers of the enemy, Longstreet bringing over his whole column with little delay. On Sunday last, the rebels also had a skirmish with Shackleford's force a few miles above here. They have also been pushing in our outposts from Marysville, giving in all respects and at all these several points a critical aspect to the situation.

The greatest excitement already prevails here. Loyal East Tennesseeans are for the first time awakening to the discovery that our stay here may be short, and that the rebels will, after all, winter here. Even Brownlow, courageous and unflinching, sees the danger. And, indeed, I have already indicated it. The failure of the Chickamauga fight, unless speedily redeemed, fixes the fate of this expedition and the question of our remaining in East Tennessee. Rumors of a change of commanders begin to be once more rife. It is whispered that irreconcilable differences between Burnside and Halleck have caused the former to decide upon resigning. Whoever may be his successor, this little army will sadly part with a commander who under circumstances and experiences so trying has been ever bold, patient and an exemplar in all that is soldierly. Unless material and speedy aid reaches this army from other points, and the campaign at Chattanooga, of which it is a pendant, is carried out, there can be but one issue to the present federal occupation of East Tennessee.

THE SINGER SEWING MACHINES.

Our LETTER A FAMILY SEWING MACHINE is fast gaining a world-wide reputation. It is beyond doubt the best and cheapest and most beautiful of all Family Sewing Machines yet offered to the public. No other Family Sewing Machine has so many useful appliances for hemming, binding, felling, tucking, gathering, guaging, braiding, embroidering, cording, and so forth. No other Family Sewing Machine has so much capacity for a great variety of work. It will sew all kinds of cloth, and with all kinds of thread. Great and recent improvements make our Family Sewing Machine most reliable, and most durable, and most certain in action a all rates of speed. It makes the interlocked stitch which is the best stitch known. Any one, even of the most ordinary capacity, can see, at a glance, how to use the letter A Family Sewing Machine. Our Family Sewing Machines are finished in chaste and exquisite style.

The Folding Case of the Family Machine is a piece of cunning workmanship of the most useful kind. It protects the machine when not in use, and when about to be operated may be opened as a spacious and substantial table to sustain the work. While some of the Cases, made out of the choicest woods, are finished in the simplest and chastest manner possible, others are adorned and embellished in the most costly and superb manner.

It is absolutely necessary to see the Family Machine in operation, so as to judge of its great capacity and beauty.

It is fast becoming as popular for family sewing as our Manufacturing machines are for manufacturing purposes.

The Branch Offices are well supplied with silk, twist, thread, needles, oil, &c., of the very best quality.

In Millinery Goods at Wholesale or Retail, we cannot be undersold.

CLOTHING FOR THE MILLION!

In our Clothing Department will be found decidedly the largest stock in this city, of Men's and Boys' Clothing, principally of our own manufacture, and from the largest and best clothing houses in New York city; also, a splendid line of French and English cloths, Cassimeres and Vestings, and all the superior makes of Harris and other noted manufacturers, which we sell by the piece or yard, or manufacture to order in the very best style. We guarantee to sell to the trade, in small quantities, as low as any house in the Union.

Garments cut to order in the most fashionable style, and trimmed at the very lowest figures. Call and examine our stock, which is one of the largest in the State.

In conclusion, we would say, that we never had a more splendid stock of goods than we have at present. It was purchased in Europe, personally, for net cash, and in invoice from importers and manufacturers, and will be sold by us at a small advance on cost. The old motto of "Large Sales and Small Profits," was many years ago adopted by us, to our advantage; and this year, more than ever, we are bound to "go for it."
